

Auntie's Home Daycare March 2009 Newsletter

Website Updates

Our daycare website is now much more interactive! You may view parent handbooks, menus, activity schedule, newsletters and more.

There will be more exciting features coming in the near future. If you haven't done so already, please view the website and join our members. This will be the easiest way to see when there are updates.

In an effort to reduce printing costs (and thus, paper build up for you), this will be the last printed newsletter that you will receive. You will now be able to view them only on the website or our parent board.

What We're Learning

This month's themes are:

Dr. Seuss

Rainbows!

St. Patrick's Day

Shopping

Frogs

Things you can do at home to extend the learning:

Sing some of the songs on the next page.

Let your child help you with grocery shopping instead of just going along for the ride.

Talk about words that rhyme.

Let your child practice his new skills.

Be prepared for spontaneous creativity by having colored paper, children's scissors, books, crayons, pencils, play dough, glue sticks, etc.

Have FUN!
